RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE MASS EVENT “FEAST OF ŚWIĘTY MARCIN STREET 2026”

I. GENERAL INFORMATION

1. This set of rules (hereinafter the “Rules and Regulations”) has been drawn up under the provisions of generally applicable law, in particular the Act of 20 March 2009 on the Safety of Mass Events (Journal of Laws of 2023, item 616, consolidated text).

2. The mass event “Feast of Święty Marcin Street 2026” (hereinafter the “Event”) is organised by Centrum Kultury ZAMEK, with its registered office in Poznań at 80/82 Św. Marcin Street, 61-809 Poznań (hereinafter the “Organiser”).

3. The Event will take place on 11 November 2026 within a designated, enclosed area in the vicinity of Św. Marcin Street and Niepodległości Ave. in Poznań, in line with the Event’s agenda.

4. The mass event will commence at 11 am and conclude at 9 pm.

5. The Rules and Regulations set out the conditions for admission to and participation in the Event. They apply to all persons present within the Event Site during the Event. All persons present within the Event Site during the Event are required to comply with these Rules and Regulations.

6. Admission to the Event is free of charge.

7. Access to the Event Site is available through one of the five entrances located as follows:

a) Entrance No. 1 – junction of Kościuszki Street and Św. Marcin Street

b) Entrance No. 2 – junction of Niepodległości Ave. and Fredry Street

c) Entrance No. 3 – Św. Marcin Street, next to the AMU Concert Hall

d) Entrance No. 4 – junction of Towarowa Street and Składowa Street

e) Entrance No. 5 – junction of Niepodległości Ave. and Taylora Street

8. Persons using the deposit service are therefore advised to enter and leave the Event Site through the same entrance.

9. For the purposes of these Rules and Regulations, the following terms will have the meanings set out below:

a) Security and Information Personnel – persons appointed by the Organiser to ensure the safety of Event participants, identifiable by means of identification badges, including for the purpose of checking Participants' entitlement to enter the Event. Members of the Security and Information Personnel must carry appropriate identification badges displayed in a visible place, bearing the name of the entity issuing the badge, an identification number, a photograph of the badge holder, the validity period, and the seal and signature of the issuing entity.

b) Event Site – the designated, enclosed area in which the Event takes place, or another location to which the Event may be moved for compelling reasons and which will be made public before the Event.

c) Event Participant – a person participating in the Event.

d) Act – the Act of 20 March 2009 on the Safety of Mass Events.

II. PRINCIPLES OF PARTICIPATION IN THE EVENT

1. Admission to the Event Site is free of charge and open to all interested persons.

2. Minors who have reached the age of 13 on the date of the Event may enter the Event Site provided that they carry a valid identity document, such as an identity card, passport or school ID, for the purpose of age verification.

3. A minor who has not reached the age of 13 by the date of the Event may participate in the Event only under the supervision of their legal guardians or another authorised adult.

4. Minors participate in the Event entirely at the responsibility of their guardians.

5. The Organiser may refuse admission to the Event Site and the right to remain there to persons who:

a) do not possess an identity document;

b) are visibly under the influence of alcohol, narcotic drugs, psychotropic substances or other substances with a similar effect;

c) possess weapons or other prohibited items, materials, products, beverages, agents or substances referred to in these Rules and Regulations, or other dangerous items;

d) behave aggressively, provocatively or in an uncivilised manner, or otherwise pose a threat to the order of the Event or the safety of its participants;

e) are impossible to identify due to their appearance.

6. The Security and Information Personnel will determine whether items are dangerous at their own discretion.

7. Dogs may be brought onto the Event Site, provided that they remain under the constant supervision of their handler at all times and are kept on a lead and, where necessary, muzzled if required by the dog's temperament or the circumstances. Dogs may not display aggressive behaviour. Dog handlers are required to clean up after their animals. The Organiser draws attention to the circumstances at the Event, including sudden loud noises, unfamiliar smells, and unpredictable crowds.

8. Event participants and all persons present on the Event Site are required to behave in a manner that does not jeopardise the safety of others, comply with the provisions of these Rules and Regulations, and follow the instructions of the security personnel, including the security manager.

9. The following are strictly prohibited:

a) damaging greenery and littering the Event Site;

b) damaging signs, decorations, information boards, advertising media, installations or equipment located on the Event Site;

c) improper use of sanitary facilities and equipment;

d) climbing over or passing through fences, barriers or other enclosures;

e) entering areas not designated for spectators;

f) throwing any objects;

g) using items of clothing or other objects to cover the face in order to prevent or impede identification;

h) displaying or voicing slogans containing obscene, vulgar or racist content, or inciting hostility on international, religious, social or other grounds;

i) obstructing or blocking exits, evacuation routes, access roads for emergency services, fire hydrants or other equipment essential for firefighting or rescue operations.

10. Maciej Szymaniak is the accessibility coordinator for the event for persons with specific access requirements. He may be contacted by email at m.szymaniak@ckzamek.pl on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Wednesdays.

11. Increased sound levels may occur at the Event Site, strobe lighting may be used, and large crowds may gather. These conditions may pose a health risk to pregnant women, the elderly, persons with hypertension, heart diseases, epilepsy, musculoskeletal disorders, other chronic conditions or reduced physical fitness. Such persons should consult a doctor before participating in the Event. To protect hearing, the use of hearing protection, such as earmuffs or earplugs, is recommended, particularly for children.

III. PRINCIPLES OF MAINTAINING ORDER, SAFETY, AND SECURITY AT THE EVENT SITE

1. The Organiser will ensure the safety of Event participants and maintain order throughout the Event by, inter alia:

a) appointing security and information personnel who are clearly distinguishable by appropriate signage and carry the required identification badges;

b) appointing a security manager responsible for directing and organising the work of the security personnel;

c) providing medical assistance and sanitary facilities;

d) appropriately marking the Event Site.

2. At the Event Site, members of the Security and Information Personnel will conduct supervision and inspections to prevent prohibited and dangerous items from being brought onto the premises.

3. The Security and Information Personnel will be authorised to:

a) check and verify persons' entitlement to enter the Event and, should such entitlement be lacking, refuse them admission to the Event Site or require them to leave it;

b) check the identity documents of persons to verify their identity;

c) inspect the contents of persons' luggage and clothing where there is reason to suspect that such persons are bringing in or possessing dangerous or prohibited items referred to in these Rules and Regulations;

d) issue instructions to persons disturbing public order or behaving in breach of these Rules and Regulations and, where such instructions are not complied with, demand that they leave the Event Site;

e) detain persons who pose an immediate threat to the property or other interests entrusted to their protection, or who commit prohibited acts, for the purpose of handing them over to the Police without delay.

4. The Information Personnel will be required to:

a) provide information on the facilities available and the safety requirements established by the Organiser or emergency services;

b) provide information on the locations of medical assistance points, catering outlets, and sanitary facilities;

c) supervise the safe entry and exit of persons attending the mass event;

d) prevent persons attending the mass event from entering areas not designated for the public;

e) respond immediately to incidents and threats and take the requisite remedial action, in particular by notifying the Security Personnel;

f) monitor all areas where potential hazards may arise and prevent excessive crowding;

g) ensure compliance with the Rules and Regulations of the mass event;

h) respond to complaints submitted by persons attending the mass event.

5. The Organiser will provide fire safety measures for the Event by, inter alia:

a) ensuring that the Security and Information Personnel, operational staff and Organiser's representatives are familiar with the locations of portable firefighting equipment and fire hydrants, as well as with the procedures to follow in the event of a fire;

b) training the Security Personnel in evacuation procedures, methods of alerting the relevant emergency services, the use of portable firefighting equipment, and the provision of first aid.

6. The Security Personnel may issue their own safety and fire safety instructions in line with the applicable legal provisions.

7. The following items may not be brought onto the Event Site:

a) weapons or other dangerous items;

b) pyrotechnic materials, explosives or other materials posing a fire hazard;

c) alcoholic beverages;

d) non-alcoholic beverages, except for water in a factory-sealed plastic container with a capacity of up to 0.5 litres per person;

e) narcotic drugs or psychotropic substances.

8. The above list is not exhaustive. Should any doubt arise as to whether a particular item may be brought onto the Event Site, the Security and Information Personnel will decide whether to permit it or classify it as dangerous.

9. If an inspection of luggage or clothing reveals items whose introduction onto or possession within the Event Site is prohibited, a member of the Security and Information Personnel will refuse admission to the Event to the person found in possession of such items or remove that person from the Event Site.

10. The Organiser will provide a free deposit service for the storage of specified items. The deposit service is available at each entrance to and exit from the Event Site. Participants are therefore advised to enter and leave the Event Site through the same gate. The rules governing the operation of the deposit service are set out in Appendix 1 to these Rules and Regulations.

11. Persons who are refused admission to the Event or required to leave it in accordance with these Rules will have no right to make any claims in this respect.

12. For the duration of the Event, the Organiser will designate areas that are inaccessible to the public, in particular the stage, backstage areas and dressing rooms, rooms used by the Security and Information Personnel, rooms designated for the media, and the back-of-house areas of commercial and catering stalls. Access to these areas will be restricted solely to authorised persons.

13. Any commercial, profit-making, advertising or promotional activity at the Event Site is prohibited without the Organiser’s prior written consent.

14. The Organiser will designate two trading zones at the Event, in which vendors are permitted to operate provided that they meet the Organiser’s requirements and have signed the relevant documents confirming their participation in the Event. Where an Event participant purchases goods from an exhibitor at the mass event, payment will be made directly to that exhibitor. The Organiser will not be liable for the quality, composition, safety or lawfulness of the products and goods offered by exhibitors, or for the manner in which they are sold. Any claims, complaints, or comments relating to a purchase should be addressed directly to the relevant exhibitor.

IV. COURSE OF THE EVENT

1. The Event will proceed in line with the agenda adopted by the Organiser, published on the Organiser's website and available at designated and clearly marked information points operated by the Organiser at the Event Site.

2. The Organiser reserves the right to make changes to the course of the Event for justified reasons beyond the Organiser's control that could not have been foreseen, including force majeure.

V. RECORDING THE COURSE OF THE EVENT

1. The Organiser notifies the participants that the Event may be recorded by the Organiser or authorised third parties using audio and video recording equipment. The recordings may also be broadcast live or made available via the internet, video screens, social media, and other available media technologies. The purpose of these activities is to document, promote and advertise the Event and other events organised by the Organiser or the City of Poznań.

2. Participation in the Event is deemed as consent stated by the Participant (or their legal guardian), pursuant to Article 81(1) of the Act on Copyright and Related Rights, to the free-of-charge recording and use of their image, including its dissemination by the Organiser or other authorised entities, in particular the City of Poznań.

3. The consent covers the publication of images recorded during the "Feast of St Martin's Street 2026" Event in the form of analogue and digital photographs or video recordings, without territorial or time limitations.

4. The consent covers the use of the participant's image in the following ways:

a) publication on the Organiser's social media accounts (Facebook, Instagram);

b) publication on the Organiser's website;

c) use in press articles and publications;

d) publication in online press media;

e) use in the Organiser's internal communications.

5. The Participant's image will not be subject to technical processing for the purpose of identifying the individual.

6. Furthermore, participation in the Event is deemed as consent stated by the Participant (or their legal guardian) to the processing of personal data by the Organiser in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation.

7. Detailed information on the processing of personal data is provided in Appendix 2 to these Rules and Regulations.

8. Notwithstanding paragraphs 1–6 above, the Organiser is entitled to record the course of the Event, particularly the conduct of individuals, using audio and video recording equipment, in accordance with the Act and the relevant implementing regulations. Materials that may constitute evidence warranting the initiation of criminal proceedings or proceedings in cases involving misdemeanours, or evidence relevant to such proceedings already under way, will be forwarded by the Organiser to the competent district prosecutor's office or the Police with jurisdiction over the Event Site. Materials that do not contain evidence warranting the initiation of criminal proceedings or proceedings in cases involving misdemeanours, or evidence relevant to such proceedings already under way, will be retained after the Event for a period of at least 30 days, but no longer than 90 days, after which they will be destroyed.

VI. SELECTED CRIMINAL PROVISIONS UNDER THE ACT OF 20 MARCH 2009 ON THE SAFETY OF MASS EVENTS

1. Failure to comply with instructions of event personnel

a) Any person who fails to comply with order-maintenance instructions issued pursuant to the Act or the Rules governing the mass event by the security personnel, information personnel or the Police during the Event and at its location will be liable to a penalty of restriction of liberty or a fine of no less than PLN 2,000.

b) The same penalty will apply to any person who enters or remains in an area not designated for the public.

2. Prohibition of alcohol

a) Bringing alcoholic beverages onto or possessing them within the Event Site is prohibited and will be punishable by restriction of liberty or a fine of no less than PLN 2,000.

3. Prohibition of weapons and dangerous items

a) Bringing weapons, explosives, pyrotechnic materials, materials posing a fire hazard or other dangerous items onto or possessing them within the Event Site will be punishable by:

· a fine of not less than 180 daily rates;

· restriction of liberty or imprisonment for a term of between 3 months and 5 years;

· the court may order the forfeiture of such items, even if they do not belong to the offender.

4. Prohibition of concealing one's face

a) Any participant who, during the Event, uses clothing or other items for the purpose of preventing their identity from being recognised will be liable to restriction of liberty or a fine of no less than PLN 2,000.

5. Aggression and disturbance of public order

a) Any person who, during the Event, throws objects that may pose a danger, violates the bodily integrity of a member of the security personnel or unlawfully enters a restricted area (e.g. the stage or technical backstage area) will be liable to a fine, restriction of liberty or imprisonment for up to 3 years.

b) If the offender acts as part of a group or uses violence or dangerous items, the penalty may be imprisonment for a term of between 1 and 5 years.

6. Accelerated proceedings

a) Cases involving petty offences committed during the Event (e.g. bringing in alcohol, failing to comply with instructions issued by event personnel or entering a prohibited area) will be dealt with under so-called accelerated proceedings, meaning that the offender may be tried and punished during or immediately after the Event.

7. Ban on attending future events

a) In the event of petty offences or criminal offences connected with the Event, the court may impose a penal measure prohibiting attendance at mass events for a period of between 2 and 6 years.

VII. MISCELLANEOUS

1. The Organiser will not be liable for the consequences of force majeure.

2. Force majeure will mean an event beyond the Organiser's control that prevents or significantly impedes the fulfilment of obligations relating to the organisation of the Event. Force majeure will include, in particular, extreme weather conditions; failures or disruptions in the supply of utilities and services (electricity, heating, water and telecommunications); acts of war; riots; epidemics; and decisions or actions of central or local government authorities.

3. The Organiser reserves the right to amend these Rules at any time, in particular to ensure the safety of participants and the proper conduct of the Event. Amendments will take effect upon their publication on the Organiser's website, unless a different effective date is specified.

4. The Organiser reserves the right to cancel or interrupt the Event without prior notice in the event of circumstances beyond its control, including force majeure.

5. These Rules and Regulations are available:

a) on the Organiser's website;

b) at the Organiser's registered office;

c) at the entrance gates to the Event Site.

6. Generally applicable provisions of law, in particular the Act of 20 March 2009 on the Safety of Mass Events and the provisions of the Civil Code, apply to any matters not covered by these Rules and Regulations.

7. These Rules and Regulations enter into force on the date of their publication.

Appendix no. 2 – GDPR clause for the Event Participants

Appendix no. 1 – Rules and Regulations of operation of the deposit service during the mass event “FEAST OF ŚWIĘTY MARCIN STREET 2026”

I. General provisions

1. This set of Rules and Regulations sets out the principles of depositing objects with the deposit service for the duration of a mass event “Feast of Święty Marcin Street 2026”, organised by Centrum Kultury ZAMEK, with its registered office in Poznań at 80/82 Św. Marcin Street, 61-809 Poznań, on 11.11.2026.
2. The custodian is Centrum Kultury ZAMEK, with its registered office in Poznań at 80/82 Św. Marcin Street, 61-809 Poznań.
3. Deposit service points are in operation at all the entrances (ways of ingress and egress) within the Event.
4. The Organiser recommends the use of the same entrance to enter and leave the Event Site to streamline the efficient collection of the deposited items.
5. The deposit service points will be open on 11 November 2026 between 10:30 am and 9:30 pm.

II. Principles of use of the deposit service

1. The deposit service is free of charge for the event participants.
2. Upon depositing their belongings, the Event Participant will receive a numbered token, which will constitute the sole basis for reclaiming the deposited items.
3. Deposited items will be released only upon presentation of the token issued.

4. Should the token get lost, the deposited items may be released only after the Event has ended, to a person who:

   a) provides a detailed description of the deposited items;

   b) verifies their identity by presenting an identity document;

   c) signs a collection report.

5. The custodian reserves the right to refuse to release any item if there is doubt as to the Event Participant's entitlement to collect it.
6. If several persons claim the right to collect the same item, the custodian will withhold its release until the matter has been resolved by the competent authorities.
7. The custodian will not be liable for releasing an item to an unauthorised person who presents the corresponding valid token.

III. Items excluded from the deposit service

1. The following items will not be accepted for deposit:

a) illegal, dangerous, flammable or explosive items, or items that otherwise pose a safety risk;

b) items of high value (e.g. cash, jewellery, documents, electronic equipment, etc.);

c) oversized items that cannot be stored for technical or organisational reasons.

2. The custodian reserves the right to refuse to accept any item for deposit without giving a reason.

IV. Liability of the custodian

1. The custodian will not be liable for any damage resulting from the nature of the items accepted for safekeeping.

2. The custodian will not be liable for items left outside the safekeeping area.

3. The custodian will not be liable for the loss, damage or destruction of items excluded from the storage facility, even if they were accepted for storage in breach of the Terms and Conditions.

4. The custodian will only be liable for the safekeeping of ordinary items (e.g. clothing, bags, everyday items) that have been correctly accepted for storage.

5. The custodian's liability is limited to the value of the item as determined at the time of deposit, subject to paragraph 3 above.

V. Depositing and collecting items

1. Items left at the deposit facility should be collected on the event day by 9:30 pm.
2. Items not collected from the deposit facility within the period specified in section 1 may be collected from the Organiser's premises within 7 days of the date on which the items were deposited for safekeeping.
3. Items not collected within the period specified in section 2 will be destroyed.
4. The custodian will not be liable for any damage to items deposited for safekeeping and not collected within the periods specified in sections 1 and 2, or for any damage arising from the particular characteristics of the items deposited for safekeeping.

VI. Complaints

1. Complaints concerning the deposit facility may be submitted electronically to sekretariat@ckzamek.pl within 7 days of the date on which the items were deposited for safekeeping.
2. Complaints submitted after the specified deadline will not be considered and will receive no response.
3. A complaint must include the complainant's full name, contact details, and a precise description of the complaint together with the reasons for it.
4. The Custodian will consider the complaint within 30 days of receipt and inform the complainant of the outcome by email.
5. The Custodian's decision regarding the complaint will be final.

VII. Miscellaneous

1. Depositing items for safekeeping constitutes acceptance of these Deposit Rules and Regulations and consent to comply with them.
2. Any matters not covered by these Deposit Regulations will be governed by the applicable provisions of generally binding law, in particular the provisions of the Civil Code.
3. These Rules and Regulations are available:

a) on the website of the Event Organiser,

b) at the premises of the Organiser/Custodian,

c) at the deposit points during the Event.

Appendix no. 2 – GDPR clause for the Event Participants

In view of the entry into force of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation), hereinafter referred to as the GDPR, we hereby inform you as follows:

1. The controller of your personal data is Centrum Kultury ZAMEK, with its registered office at ul. Św. Marcin 80/82, 61-809 Poznań.

2. In connection with the processing of personal data, you may contact the Data Protection Officer appointed by the Controller by email at iod@ckzamek.pl or in writing at the Controller's address.

3. The personal data of participants in the mass event will be processed with the following intent:

a. ensuring the safety and identification of participants – including verification of participants' identities in accordance with the Act of 20 March 2009 on the Safety of Mass Events and Article 6(1)(c) of the GDPR.

b. recording the course of the event – for the purpose of preventing and combating crimes and misdemeanours, pursuant to Article 6(1)(c) of the GDPR.

c. marketing, promotional, and documentation purposes, following the Participant's consent pursuant to Article 6(1)(a) of the GDPR.

4. The data processed may include identification and contact details, image data and other data required under applicable law.

5. Data may be disclosed to processors acting on behalf of the Controller, such as security companies, event security personnel, entities providing broadcasting services, IT service providers and hosting providers, as well as public authorities (e.g. the Police).

6. Data will be retained:

a. for up to 90 days after the event ends or until the conclusion of proceedings conducted by public authorities (in the case of data collected for event security purposes);

b. until consent is withdrawn (in the case of data processed on the basis of consent).

7. You have the right to:

a. access your data (Article 15 of the GDPR);

b. rectify your data (Article 16 of the GDPR);

c. erase your data (Article 17 of the GDPR);

d. restrict processing (Article 18 of the GDPR);

e. data portability (Article 20 of the GDPR);

f. object to processing (Article 21 of the GDPR);

g. withdraw your consent (Article 7(3) of the GDPR), without affecting the lawfulness of processing carried out before its withdrawal.

8. If you consider that the processing of your personal data infringes the provisions of the GDPR, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the President of the Personal Data Protection Office.

9. Data will not be transferred outside the European Economic Area or subjected to automated decision-making, including profiling.

10. Participation in the mass event constitutes acceptance of the above rules of the processing of personal data.

Manner of making this Agenda and Rules and Regulations available to the event participants:

1. In the Organiser's registered office
2. In a visible spot at all of the entrances to the event site

On behalf of the Organiser

RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE EVENT SITE

In force on 11.11.2026
During the mass event within the enclosed area of Św. Marcin Street and Niepodległości Avenue in Poznań

1. All persons present within the event site are required to behave in a manner that does not endanger the safety of others and to comply with the regulations of the Site and the Event.

2. The following persons will not be permitted to enter the event site:

a) Persons visibly under the influence of alcohol, intoxicating substances, psychotropic substances or other substances having a similar effect;

b) Persons bringing in intoxicating substances, alcoholic beverages, psychotropic substances, pyrotechnic or explosive materials, or carrying weapons or other dangerous items;

c) Persons refusing to present a valid identity document bearing a photograph, full name and address, and persons whose identification by means of the photograph in the document is obstructed (e.g. by wearing a balaclava or scarf over the face);

d) Persons behaving aggressively or provocatively, or otherwise posing a threat to public safety or order.

3. The determination of whether an item is dangerous will be made by the Security and Information Services.

4. Any person posing a threat and/or disrupting the event will be removed by the Security Services and promptly handed over to the Police.

5. The event site comprises the enclosed area at the junction of ul. Św. Marcin and Aleja Niepodległości in Poznań and is secured by open-mesh fencing erected around the event site. The Event Site is divided into the following zones:

a) the mass event zone accessible to participants – the area in front of the stage;

b) the mass event zone inaccessible to participants – the stage and backstage area, together with the so-called mixing desk (front of house, FOH).

6. The Information Services, whose staff wear identification badges, provide information on the locations of medical, catering, and sanitary facilities.

7. Participants of the mass event who do not possess identification badges are prohibited from entering areas not designated for the public.

8. In the event of a fire or other emergency, persons present within the event site should:

a) immediately notify the Security and Information Services;

b) comply with the instructions issued by the Security and Information Services and announcements broadcast through the PE system;

c) proceed to the emergency exits;

d) avoid panicking;

e) refrain from obstructing access for the Emergency Services.

9. Penalties:

a) Any person who fails to comply with a security instruction issued pursuant to the Act on the Safety of Mass Events, the Site Regulations or the Mass Event Regulations, or who remains in an area not designated for the public, will be liable to a fine.

b) Any person who brings or possesses alcoholic beverages at the mass event, other than those purchased within the event site, will be liable to a penalty of restriction of liberty or a fine.

10. Minors who have reached the age of 13 may enter the Event Site provided that they carry the following documents:

a) an identity document (identity card or passport, school ID or student ID);

b) written consent signed by a parent or legal guardian authorising the minor to participate in the Event, together with a declaration by the legal guardian or a person authorised by them accepting full responsibility for the minor.

11. A minor who has not yet reached the age of 13 on the day of the Event may participate in the Event only when accompanied by a legal guardian or another authorised adult, who will assume sole responsibility for the minor, having signed, before entering the Event, a declaration accepting full responsibility for the minor in question.

12. Minors who have not yet reached the age of 4 on the day of the Event are entitled to enter the Event Site without a separate Ticket, provided that they are accompanied by a parent or legal guardian entitled to participate in the Event.
